HOW DID THE FUND PERFORM LAST YEAR AND WHAT AFFECTED ITS PERFORMANCE?

For the 12-month period ended December 31, 2024, the Fund's No-Load class posted 68.52% and significantly outperformed benchmarks S&P 600 Small Cap Index and S&P 500 Index which posted 8.70% and 25.02%, respectively.

WHAT FACTORS INFLUENCED PERFORMANCE

The Fund's performance was driven by strong positive returns in "hard asset" companies, which we believe are well-positioned to benefit from rising prices, particularly in the energy sector. Energy prices were mixed for the year, as strong supply growth negated resilient demand. Our energy exposure to royalties and land/infrastructure decoupled from commodity markets due to unique growth drivers. The Fund also benefitted from exposure to a "Defense Technology" company that provides essential surveillance, communications and encryption/security for the federal government.

POSITIONING

The portfolio remains focused on companies within the broader universe of value companies in the hard asset realm and seeks opportunities in small capitalization issuers with the potential to expand to higher valuations either through revaluation, growth or a combination thereof. Guided by long-term our value investment philosophy, the Fund may experience periods of outperformance or underperformance relative to the benchmark, but we believe the Fund is well-positioned to generate above-market returns over the long term.

PERFORMANCE

The Fund's top contributor: Security selection collectively contributed positively to performance particularly within the Energy Sector. Texas Pacific Land Corporation ("TPL") was the largest contributor to returns.

The Fund's top detractor: Inter Parfums, Inc ("IPAR") detracted marginally from returns.
