The Multi-Disciplinary Income Fund

3RD QUARTER 2018

Decades of declining yields fueled gains in interest rate sensitive portfolios, but the trend may have ultimately robbed portfolios of future returns.

The Multi-Disciplinary Income Fund seeks to generate consistent levels of income and aims to avoid significant interest rate risks inherent in more traditional income oriented strategies.

There are risks associated with the strategy, including risks related to investments in options, fixed income securities and exchange traded funds. There is no guarantee that the Fund will be successful in generating income. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. Barclays U.S. 1-3 Credit Index data sourced from Bloomberg.

10+ year investment track record<sup>1</sup>

Approx. $40.7 million in net assets<sup>2</sup>

$6.0 billion in firm-wide assets under management<sup>2</sup>

Multi-asset approach to income via fixed income and options

The Fund Seeks to:

Generate income and achieve attractive long-term risk-adjusted returns.

Produce cash-flows by underwriting debt and equity risk via the collection of bond coupons and option premiums over various market risk environments.

Provide downside protection and potentially lower volatility relative to equities and/or long-term high yield bonds.

Fund Distribution History

This presentation must be preceded or accompanied by a copy of the fund's current Prospectus. The distribution yield stated above represents the fund's distribution made to shareholders of the No Load Class over the calendar year divided by the No Load Class NAV of the last business day of the period. The distributions consist of income and realized capital gains, and may include return of capital if shareholders of record at the time of the distribution were provided with such notice.

The Gross expense ratios listed are as of 12/31/2017 as reported in the 4/30/2018 prospectus. The Fund's adviser has voluntarily agreed to waive management fees and reimburse fund expenses so that net annual fund operating expenses do not exceed certain levels, not including acquired fund fees and expenses (AFFE), through May 1, 2019 and may be discontinued at any time by the Fund's adviser after May 1, 2019. The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Performance data does not reflect the deduction of a sales load or fee which, if reflected, would reduce the performance quoted. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted.

The inception date for KMDNX is February 11, 2008. Slide 4 contains standardized performance data. Additional disclosures are located on Slide 11.

Important Risk Disclosures

You should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the fund carefully before investing. For a free copy of the fund's prospectus, which contains this and other information, visit our website at www.kineticsfunds.com or call 1-800-930-3828. You should read the prospectus carefully before you invest.

Past performance does not guarantee future results. You will be charged a redemption fee equal to 2.00% of the net amount of the redemption if you redeem or exchange your shares less than 30 days after you purchase them. The Multi-Disciplinary Income Fund is classified as diversified; however, asset allocation/diversification does not guarantee a profit or eliminate risk of loss.

Unlike other investment companies that directly acquire and manage their own portfolios of securities, the Multi-Disciplinary Income Fund pursues its investment objective by investing all of its investable assets in a corresponding portfolio series of Kinetics Portfolio Trust. The Barclays 1-3 U.S. Credit Bond Index is composed of investment grade United States credit securities with a maturity between one and three years. The Barclays U.S. Aggregate Bond Index is composed of the Barclays U.S. Government/Corporate Bond Index, Mortgage-Backed Securities Index, and Asset-Backed Securities Index, and includes securities that are of investment grade quality or better, have at least one year to maturity, and have an outstanding par value of at least $100 million. The Barclays U.S. Corporate High Yield Bond Index measures the market of U.S. dollar-denominated, non-investment grade, fixed-rate, taxable corporate bonds. The Barclays indices are trademarks of Barclays Bank PLC. You cannot invest directly in an index. Annualized Volatility is the standard deviation of periodic returns multiplied by the square root of the number of periods in one year, e.g., the standard deviation of daily returns multiplied by the square root of 250 trading days per year.

This document and its content are the property of Kinetics Asset Management LLC ("Kinetics"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Horizon Kinetics LLC, and cannot be reproduced or transmitted to any person in any form or by any means in whole or part without prior written consent from Kinetics. Mutual Funds, including Kinetics Multi-Disciplinary Income Fund, are subject to stock market risks and significant fluctuations in value. If the stock market declines in value, the Funds are likely to decline in value and you could lose money on your investment. The Multi-Disciplinary Income Fund may invest up to 100% of its assets in debt securities that are traded below investment grade (junk) bonds. Generally, non-investment grade debt securities are subject to greater credit risk, price volatility and risk of loss than investment grade securities.

This Multi-Disciplinary Income Fund invests in options and bonds, which carry special risks further discussed in the Fund's Prospectus. Any premium received from the written options may not be sufficient to offset any losses sustained from the volatility of the underlying equity securities over time. Concentrated portfolios that invest a substantial portion of their assets in a particular industry carry a risk that a group of industry-related stocks will decline in price due to industry specific developments. Companies in the same or similar industries may share common characteristics and are more likely to react comparably to industry specific market or economic developments. The Multi-Disciplinary Income Fund may invest in the equity securities of small and medium size companies. Small and medium-size companies often have narrower markets and more limited managerial and financial resources than do larger, more established companies. As a result, their performance can be more volatile and they face a greater risk of business failure, which could increase the volatility of the Fund's assets.

The Multi-Disciplinary Income Fund may invest in foreign securities, which can carry higher returns but involve more risks than those associated with U.S. investments. Additional risks associated with investments in foreign securities include currency fluctuations, political and economic instability, differences in financial reporting standards and less stringent regulation of securities markets. Portfolio holdings information is subject to change at any time and is as of the date shown.
